Congratulations Lee!

CDCC member Lee Hubbard has been named SA's Volunteer of the Year.

Following is an excerpt from the announcement on the Cycling SA website:

Cycling Australia and the Board of Cycling SA is pleased to announce Lee Hubbard as 'Volunteer of Year' for 2009. Lee works in the CSA office each day on a strictly volunteer basis and is involved at most races with Times-7 and other duties which include setting up the Rendition Homes Teams Series infrastructure and officiating. Cycling SA has a very small staff and Lee's input and dedication shouldn't be understated.

"We would find it very hard to get through a week without volunteers, our sport relies on volunteers, but in the past twelve months no single person has given up more of their time compared with Lee" says Executive Manager Max Stevens.. Max went on to say "Lee I can only thank you personally because we in the office know your commitment day in week out, I can't remember the last time you said you weren't available to assist".

Lee will be recognised at Cycling's 'night of nights' - the 2009 Australian Cyclist of the Year Awards on Sunday 22 November 2009, in Melbourne.
